

Capital Crossroads Donates to Saddle Pals

Sacramento's Capital Crossroads Gay Rodeo Association (SCCGRA) took time out during their Rodeo Skills Clinic on Saturday, April 5 to present a check to Saddle Pals.

Capital Crossroads Gay Rodeo Association President Rob Pierce and Vice President of Rodeo Operations Semmy Van Galder present a check for $1,000 to United Cerebral Palsy Board Member Sharan Hewitt and President Doug Berman. The money will be used to help fund UCP's Saddle Pals, which provides a therapeutic horsemanship program to individuals with physical or developmental disabilities.

Saddle Pals is a therapeutic horsemanship program that provides services to individuals with physical or developmental disabilities. Saddle Pals is a program provided by United Cerebral Palsy Association of Greater Sacramento.

The purpose of Capital Crossroads is to promote the sport of rodeo, the Western lifestyle and culture. SCCGRA is a member association of the International Gay Rodeo Association (IGRA). The IGRA has 28 member associations spread throughout the United States and Canada.

Saddle Pals has also been selected by Capital Crossroads to be a beneficiary of any excess funds raised at this year's eighth Sierra Stampede. The 2008 Sierra Stampede Rodeo and Festival will be held July 26 and 27 at the Central Park Horse Arena in Rio Linda.
